

Flying the Kite

Video

Watch the short clip of "Flying the Kite."

Rules in our lives are like the string on the kite. We think the rules are holding us back and keeping us from having fun; actually, rules can keep us on course and help us to fly higher than we could on our own. Without any rules, we would dive to the ground, like a kite without a string.